MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Director's Conversation with Chairman J. W. Fulbright, Senate Foreign Relations Committee

25X1A 1. This afternoon the Director called on Chairman Fulbright in 25X1A response to the Senator's interest in the number of Agency personnel [redacted] This question had arisen during the confirmation hearings of [redacted] who had been embarrassed when asked for this information in an open hearing.

25X1A 2. The Director said that Senator Fulbright explained that he had 25X1A merely raised this question [redacted] because of his particular interest [redacted] Apparently the Senator was entirely satisfied with the Director's information [redacted] [redacted]

25X1A

3. The Director said Senator Fulbright then turned to the subject of biological and chemical warfare, in which he was quite interested.

4. The Director said Senator Fulbright was friendly and relaxed in their conversation and remarked that the Director had generally provided more accurate information to the Committee than had other witnesses who had testified regarding the Communist threat.
